What Happened???

I can't believe the first quarter of 2005 is over. I missed another publication date! However, here we go.....

I'm not really MADD...

Workin' on a shoot with 18:20 Productions for MADD. Korey Miller directed on location for Mothers Against Drunk Driving. This segment was shot at Neotropolis in Carrollton, Texas. It is part of an educational video. We videotaped most of the "host" dialog for the project.

Web sites updated...

Finally! I got around to updating both my sites recently. I still have plans for some new additions to both sites soon. Go to www.soundone.net, as it has a link to Forensic Sound.

Okay, just a few...

Is the camera near the lights?
We get paid to be silly.
Cover your hands with your mouth.
Before you shoot, I need to touch her.
The hood is stuck upwards.
It's hard to frame upside down.
I have no background.
Do some of that leg spinning stuff.
I want everything louder than everything else.

Checkin' the space...

Off on another sound study and evaluation for Mecca Design & Production. Kenneth Mecca contacted me in April about a future project. I was off with my camera, test gear, plans, and lots of excitement. I enjoy doing sound studies and analysis for studios, sound stages, environmental, and noise studies for industrial and manufacturing facilities. Hit the web site and check on the Consulting page for all the latest info.

Why haven't you called???

What can I say. I'm here, the phone works, and so do I. Call me about your next project in film, video, acoustics, and even forensics. Yep, I'm sorta the audio CSI of Mesquite.
